U. S. PROBATION OFFICER SUMMARY

For the Court's review, Kenneth J. Sutton was sentenced on October 29, 2009, in the District of Nevada, and immediately began his probation in the Eastern District of California. Sutton has no significant known arrest history prior to the instant offense of conviction. All special conditions have been satisfied, including 100 hours of community service, and there are no outstanding financial obligations in this case. Sutton has had no violation conduct in the Eastern District of California.

Sutton and his wife own and operate the Shenandoah Inn, in Plymouth, California, and have no ties to the District of Nevada.

The Probation Office in the Eastern District of California requests that Sutton be considered for early termination of probation. As noted on the Judgment, Sutton may request early termination after three years if he has complied with all terms of probation. Three years of supervision would be completed on October 28, 2012. The United States Attorney's Office has been consulted, and has no formal objection to the Court granting early termination of probation.

Therefore, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3564(c) and Fed. R. Crim. P 32.1(c)(2), it is respectfully requested that the Court consider and make a determination in granting Kenneth Sutton an early termination from probation
